

Tri-County Veteran Support Network

Charleston, Berkeley & Dorchester Counties

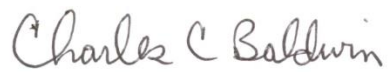

Updated November 2014

Foreword

This directory consists of many organizations filled with dedicated men and women committed to serving our veterans and families of the Charleston Tri-County area.

There can be no doubt that the people of the Charleston Tri-County community care a great deal for our warriors. We are grateful for the sacrifices of our veterans and their families. Now, please receive our gratitude and our desire to serve you with that same spirit of excellence.

We wish to thank Jeanne Carmichael and Eileen Hadbavny of the American Red Cross and LTC Larry Dandridge of AUSA for their contributions in laying a solid foundation in this effort. We also want to thank Family Services, Inc. for their wonderful support in this project and, in particular, the tremendous efforts of Jordan Hardy.

DISCLAIMER: The organizations and individuals listed in this directory cannot and do not guarantee that they can provide assistance, but each of us are “committed” to doing everything within our charters and organizations, bylaws, governing Federal-State-Local laws and rules-regulations, and resolve to do whatever we can that is legal, moral, and ethical and within in our resources and approvals processes to help those in need. Everyone and every organization in this directory is devoted to trying to help our beloved wounded, ill, injured, and needy troops and disabled veterans, veterans, and their families. Although most of the services in this directory are free, some are not free. For example (and just one example) there are some co-pays for medications under hospice for Medicare covered hospice patients. However, all the organizations and individuals listed here are committed to help in every way possible and to make sure if there are any fees associated with their assistance that they are fully disclosed up front and before there are any charges accrued.

New organizations that wish to become a member of the Tri-County Veteran Support Network may submit contact information, mission statement, and website address (if applicable) via fax to (843) 735-5885.

Please direct questions or concerns to:

Community Resources

Organization Name: Airman & Family Readiness Center-Transition Assistance Program (TAP)

Contact: Kevin Hawks, Community Readiness Specialist

Address: 104 E. Simpson Street, Building 500, Joint Base Charleston, SC 29404

Phone: 843-963-7231

E-mail: kevin.hawks.1@us.af.mil

Purpose: The Airman & Family Readiness Center assists all Reserves, Active Duty, National Guard, retired veterans and civilian employees regardless of branch. The Transition Assistance Program (TAP) assists those associated specifically with the United States Air Force and prepares separating, retiring, and demobilizing service members and their families with skills and knowledge to facilitate a successful transition from life in the military to the civilian sector. The first step in the transition process is to complete the congressionally-mandated pre-separation counseling session, which provides detailed information on the various benefits and services available to separating members. Each Family Readiness Center is staffed to provide personalized assistance for all transition-related needs of armed services members.

E-mail: contactus@operation-phoenix.com or vethelp@operation-phoenix.com

Purpose: It began as an idea, and developed into a team of warriors who have found a way to serve yet again. Competing across the country and teaching those who wish to learn respect for firearms, safety while handling them, and raising awareness of the hardships veterans endure on a daily basis, as well as aid for them however possible. We are devoted to excellence, education, the best lessons of our military service, and loyalty to our fellow service members.

Operation Phoenix is seeking to raise funds, awareness, and provide help for wounded veterans. Veterans in this country are not properly taken care of or looked after. Operation Phoenix will try to fill that need for wounded veterans. We are using shooting events to accomplish this goal, bring veterans together, and educate veterans on the different programs out there to help them.

Phone: 843-789-7427

E-mail: Linda.Carlson4@va.gov

Purpose: Peer Support Specialists are uniquely prepared for effective communication and interaction with veterans after serving in the armed forces and having similar experiences. They act as “life coaches,” helping veterans by creating an individualized plan to achieve their goals. The following VA-sponsored programs offer the option to communicate with a Peer Support Specialist:

- HUD-VASH Program-Charleston
- Mental Health Outpatient Centers-Goose Creek
- PTSD Unit-Charleston
- Substance Abuse Treatment Center-Charleston
- Veterans Enrichment Center-Charleston

NOTE: Veteran clients may not self-refer to a Peer Support Specialist. They must first be receiving assistance or services through one of the programs sponsored by the Ralph H. Johnson VA Medical Center that offers the option to speak with a Peer Support Specialist. These roles are unique in that they are not clinical staff, but instead provide counseling and advice from their own personal experiences.

Address: 2669 Hamilton Rd., Johns Island, SC 29455

Phone: 843-559-6060

E-mail: horsesforheroes@catrfarms.org

Purpose: CATR's mission is to improve the lives of children and adults with disabilities using therapeutic riding and equine related activities. CATR is a PATH International Premier Accredited Center and has been in operation for 22 years. CATR currently works with over 140 individuals with a variety of disabilities each year. We have been working with veterans from the Charleston VA Medical Center as well as other groups. We have WWP scholarships available for veterans who served post 9/11/01.

Therapeutic horseback riding uses the horse as a therapeutic modality that provides physical, psychological, and social benefits to veterans who are healing from injury or illness. The horse's movement gives multi-sensory input which can improve the veteran's strength, balance, circulation, posture, endurance, coordination, and agility. Therapeutic riding and equine related activities additionally help to build self-confidence and emotional well-being.

E-mail: phwffcharleston@gmail.com

Purpose: Project Healing Waters Fly Fishing, Inc. (PHWFF)TM is dedicated to the physical and emotional rehabilitation of disabled active military service personnel and disabled veterans through fly fishing and associated activities including education and outings.

PHWFF provides basic fly fishing, fly casting, fly tying and rod building classes, along with clinics participants ranging from beginners who have never fished before, to those with prior fly fishing and tying experience who are adapting their skills to their new abilities. All fly fishing and tying equipment is provided to the participants at no cost. Fishing trips, both one day and multi-day, are also provided free of charge to participants.

PHWFF is unique in that our volunteers are teaching classes on an on-going, long term basis. It is much more than a one day fishing trip. For many participants, particularly disabled veterans, the socialization and camaraderie of the classes are just as important as the fishing outings, and provide them a new activity.

PHWFF strives to serve the deserving past and present members of our armed forces who have made great sacrifices in the service of our nation.
